Juneau to Petersburg/Petersburg to Juneau on MV Catalyst

General trip information

Your trip will begin in Juneau or Petersburg, depending on which departure you are on (check your trip booking to confirm your date and departure port). Travel to/from Juneau or Petersburg is usually booked to/from Seattle on Alaska Air (www.alaskaair.com).

You may also choose to use the Alaska Marine Highway System (State Ferry System) which has weekly arrivals from Bellingham, WA and Prince Rupert, B.C. Go to www.alaska.gov/ferry for their schedule and fare information.

We recommend that you arrive a day prior to the cruise departure date to ensure that you will not miss the boat.

Finding the MV Catalyst

Juneau: Catalyst will be docked at the Intermediate Vessel Float. It is south of the downtown area off S. Franklin Street. Look for Taku Smokery, a large, forest green building on the water-side of the street. Access to the dock is past the tramway between the water and the Smokery building.

Petersburg: Catalyst will either be along “D” float in the South Harbor, which is southeast of town, just beyond the Sons of Norway Hall, a conspicuous white meeting hall on Sing Lee Alley, or in North Harbor, which is more central to town. The ramp for North Harbor is adjacent to the Harbor Master’s office. To find out where Catalyst is moored, please call the Harbor Master at 907.772.4688.

When to meet the boat

Juneau: Though you may bring your luggage to the boat early the day of departure, we welcome guests aboard at 11:00 am, hoping to cast off by 11:30 am.

Petersburg: We welcome you aboard at 12:30 pm, casting off by 1:15 pm.

After boarding, we will help you get your luggage into your cabin. Following a safety orientation, we will get underway. After leaving port, we will serve a full lunch and give brief introductions to the workings of the boat and an overview of the voyage ahead.

Things to do in Petersburg

While you're in Petersburg, don't miss Sing Lee Alley Books. They have a great collection of Alaska books and field guides as well as contemporary titles. Also not to be missed is Eagle's Roost Park at the north end of town past the grocery store on Nordic Drive. It is an excellent spot for viewing and photographing Bald Eagles up close. If you're in the mood for a hike, try the visitor center, they have trail maps. A hike we recommend: The Raven's Roost trail leaves from a trailhead behind the airport. You start out crossing muskeg, then enter the trees and begin a steep climb to the ridge line. The trail then follows along the ridge for several miles to a Forest Service cabin with an open view of Wrangell Narrows. Give yourself at least half a day for the hike. Hike past the airport and see the remains of an old native fish trap and petroglyphs at low tide.

Fishing Licenses

Purchase fishing licenses for Alaska online at <http://www.admin.adfg.state.ak.us/license>. Fishing is dependent on activities and tides. Our fishing is limited to stream fishing for salmon and trout, setting crab/prawn traps, and casting with light poles off the boat. If you would like an opportunity to fish for halibut and salmon, we suggest extending your visit and take a full or half day trip with a local guide.
